

MUTUAL NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Mutual Nondisclosure Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made as of September 25, 2020 (the “Effective Date”), by and between Prota Studios, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), and Kristine Fetalco (hereinafter referred to as “Counterparty”), each sometimes referred to herein as a “party” and collectively as the “parties.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Company is in the business of software and product development (the “Business”) and is exploring strategic business opportunities with various persons and entities to further augment the Business; and

WHEREAS, the parties wish to explore a possible business opportunity regarding certain services the Counterparty may be able to provide the Company and its clients (the “Relationship”). This Agreement is intended to allow the parties to continue to discuss and evaluate the potential Relationship while protecting Discloser’s Confidential Information (including Confidential Information previously disclosed to Recipient) against unauthorized use or disclosure; and

WHEREAS, the parties acknowledge that, in the course of exploring a potential Relationship, it or they may come into contact with Confidential Information (as defined below) belonging to the other party; and

WHEREAS, the Company and Counterparty acknowledge that they are willing to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information, and to refrain from using the Confidential Information other than as expressly permitted herein, and that this is a material inducement for the Company to engage in discussions relating to a Potential Relationship and any possible contractual relationship that may arise between the Company and Counterparty; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for the mutual consideration set forth herein, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties, the parties agree as follows:

TERMS AND AGREEMENT

1. Definitions

Definition of Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” means information and physical material not generally known or available outside Discloser, and information and physical material entrusted to Discloser in confidence by third parties. Confidential Information includes, without limitation: computer programs, technical data or drawings, trade secrets, know-how, research, product or service ideas or plans, software codes and designs, algorithms, developments, inventions, patent applications, laboratory notebooks, processes, formulas, processes, inventions (whether patentable or not), schematics and other technical, business, financial, customer and product development plans, forecasts, strategies, techniques, mask works, engineering designs and drawings, hardware configuration information, agreements with third parties, lists of, or information relating to, employees and consultants of Discloser (including, but not limited to, the names, contact information, jobs, compensation, and expertise of such employees and consultants), lists of, or information relating to, suppliers and customers, price lists, pricing methodologies, cost data, market share data, marketing plans, licenses, contract information, business plans, financial forecasts, historical financial data, budgets or other business information disclosed by Discloser (whether by oral, written, graphic or machine-readable format), which Confidential Information is designated in writing to be confidential or proprietary, or if given orally, is confirmed in writing as having been disclosed as confidential or proprietary within a reasonable time (not to exceed thirty (30) calendar days) after the oral disclosure, or which information would, under the circumstances, appear to a reasonable person to be confidential or proprietary.

Definition of “Discloser” and “Recipient”. The term “Discloser” shall refer to the Company whenever the context refers to the Company’s Confidential Information being disclosed to Counterparty, which is referred to as “Recipient” in that context. Conversely, the term “Discloser” shall refer to Counterparty, whenever the context refers to Counterparty’s Confidential Information being disclosed to the Company, which is referred to as “Recipient” in that context.

2. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. Recipient shall not use any Confidential Information disclosed to it by Discloser for its own use or for any purpose other than to carry out discussions concerning, and the undertaking of, the Relationship. Recipient shall not disclose or permit disclosure of any Confidential Information of Discloser to third parties or to employees of Recipient, other than directors, officers, employees, consultants and agents of Recipient who are required to have the information in order to carry out the discussions regarding the Relationship. Recipient shall take reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of and avoid disclosure or use of Confidential Information of Discloser in order to prevent it from falling into the public domain or the possession of persons other than those persons authorized under this Agreement to have any such information. Such measures shall include the degree of care that Recipient utilizes to protect its own confidential and proprietary information of a similar nature, but in no case with any less degree than reasonable care. Recipient shall immediately notify Discloser of any misuse, misappropriation or unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information of Discloser which may come to Recipient’s attention.

3. Exceptions. Notwithstanding the above, Recipient shall not have liability to Discloser with regard to any Confidential Information that Recipient can prove:

- a. Was in the public domain at the time it was disclosed or has entered the public domain through no fault of Recipient;
- b. Was known to Recipient, without restriction, at the time of disclosure, as demonstrated by files in existence at the time of disclosure;
- c. Was independently developed by Recipient without any use of the Confidential Information, as demonstrated by files created at the time of such independent development;
- d. Is disclosed generally to third parties by Discloser without restrictions similar to those contained in this Agreement;

- e. Becomes known to Recipient, without restriction, from a source other than Discloser without breach of this Agreement by Recipient and otherwise not in violation of Discloser's rights;
- f. Is disclosed with the prior written approval of Discloser; or
- g. Is disclosed pursuant to the order or requirement of a court, administrative agency, or other governmental body; provided, however, that Recipient shall provide prompt notice of such court order or requirement to Discloser to enable Discloser to seek a protective order or otherwise prevent or restrict such disclosure.

4. Return of Materials. Recipient shall, except as otherwise expressly authorized by Discloser in writing, not make any copies or duplicates of any Confidential Information. Any materials or documents that have been furnished by Discloser to Recipient in connection with the Relationship shall be promptly returned by Recipient, accompanied by all copies of such documentation, within ten (10) calendar days after: (a) the Relationship has been rejected or concluded; or (b) the written request of Discloser.

5. No Rights Granted. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as granting any rights under any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right of Discloser, nor shall this Agreement grant Recipient any rights in or to Discloser's Confidential Information other than the limited right to review such Confidential Information solely for the purpose of determining whether to enter into the Relationship. Nothing in this Agreement requires the disclosure of any Confidential Information, which shall be disclosed, if at all, solely at Discloser's option. Nothing in this Agreement requires Discloser to proceed with the Relationship or any transaction in connection with which Confidential Information may be disclosed.

6. No Representations Made. Recipient acknowledges that neither Discloser, nor any of its representatives, in the course of providing the Confidential Information as contemplated hereunder, is making any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any such information, and Recipient assumes full responsibility for all conclusions derived from such information. Recipient shall be entitled to, and shall, rely solely on representations and warranties made in a definitive agreement, if any, relating to the Relationship.

7. No Reverse Engineering. Recipient shall not modify, reverse engineer, decompile, create other works from or disassemble any software programs contained in the Confidential Information of Discloser unless permitted in writing by Discloser.

8. Notice of Compelled Disclosure. In the event that Recipient or any person to whom they or their representatives transmit or have transmitted Confidential Information become legally compelled (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoenas, civil investigative demands or otherwise) to disclose any such Confidential Information, Recipient shall provide Discloser with prompt written notice so that Discloser may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy, or both, or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that Discloser is unable to obtain a protective order or other appropriate remedy, or if it so directs Recipient, Recipient shall furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that Recipient is advised by written opinion of its counsel is legally required to be furnished by it and shall exercise its reasonable best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment shall be accorded such Confidential Information.

9. Common Interest Agreement. To the extent that any Confidential Information provided or made available hereunder may include material subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, Recipient and Discloser understand and agree that they have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters and it is their desire, intention and mutual understanding that the sharing of such material is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege. All Confidential Information provided or made available by Discloser that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges, this Agreement, and under the joint defense doctrine. Nothing in this Agreement obligates Discloser to reveal material subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege.

10. Term. The foregoing commitments of each party shall survive any termination of the Relationship between the parties, and shall continue for a period terminating five (5) years from the date on which Confidential Information is last disclosed under this Agreement.

11. Independent Contractors. The parties are independent contractors, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to constitute the parties as partners, joint venturers, co-owners or otherwise as participants in a joint or common undertaking.

12. Remedies. Each party's obligations set forth in this Agreement are necessary and reasonable in order to protect Discloser and its business. Due to the unique nature of Discloser's Confidential Information, monetary damages may be inadequate to compensate Discloser for any breach by Recipient of its covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement. Accordingly, the parties each agree and acknowledge that any such violation or threatened violation may cause irreparable injury to Discloser and, in addition to any other remedies that may be available, in law, in equity or otherwise, Discloser shall be entitled to obtain injunctive relief against the threatened breach of this Agreement or the continuation of any such breach by Recipient.

13. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of Illinois without regard to principles of conflict of laws. Any disputes between the parties regarding the terms of this Agreement or the relationship between the parties shall be resolved in state or federal court in Cook County, Illinois, and the parties irrevocably consent to the personal jurisdiction and venue therein.

14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous discussions, understandings and agreements, whether oral or written, between them relating to the subject matter hereof.

15. Amendments and Waivers. No modification of or amendment to this Agreement, nor any waiver of any rights under this Agreement, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the parties to this Agreement. No delay or failure to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of that provision as to that or any other instance.

16. Successors and Assigns. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement, and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder, will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of their respective successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives. The Company may assign any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement. No other party to this Agreement may assign, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information of Discloser may not be assigned without the prior written consent of Discloser, unless the assignee shall be the successor entity to the assignor upon the dissolution of the assignor in its present form.

17. Notices. Any notice, demand or request required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed sufficient when delivered personally or by overnight courier or sent by email, or forty-eight (48) hours after being deposited in the U.S. mail as certified or registered mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address as set forth on the signature page, as subsequently modified by written notice, or if no address is specified on the signature page, at the most recent address set forth in the Company's books and records.

18. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect, and the provision affected will be construed so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent permissible by law.

19. Construction. This Agreement is the result of negotiations between and has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel, if any; accordingly, this Agreement shall be deemed to be the product of all of the parties hereto, and no ambiguity shall be construed in favor of or against any one of the parties hereto.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement.
